Art Exhibit: Diana Crites

The West Linn Public Library will host an exhibit featuring the work of Diana Crites during the month of October. The exhibit will run October 2-29 in the library's Community Room which is open to the public when not in use, and always open on Sundays, noon – 5:00 p.m.

Diana Crites creates art with an ethereal surrealist style that blurs the boundaries between narrative and abstract vision. Her works are held in private collections throughout the world. Diana is a member of Gallery 114 in Portland's Pearl District.

Diana favors materials and mediums that lend themselves to a process. The lucidity of oil paint adapts to form a dreamlike setting and allows the vision to grow and expand. The stark contrast of drawing in pen and ink fosters a challenge of expression. Some of her greatest influences have been artists David Lynch, Alejandro Jodorowsky, and Al Columbia, as well as illustrators Edward Gorey and Maurice Sendak.
